GOVERNMENT OF TELANGANA
IRRIGATION & CAD (SER.II) DEPARTMENT

Circular Memo.No.6782/Ser.II/A1/2022-1.

Dated:26.10.2022.

Sub:- Irrigation & CAD Department – Rule 24 of the TCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964 – Instructions on influencing superior authorities – Reg.

Attention is invited to the rule 24 of the Telangana Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964, under which no Government servant shall bring or attempt to bring any political or outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to furtherance of his interests in respect of the matters pertaining to his service under the Government.

2. In spite of the specific ruling as stated above, certain employees are trying to influence the superior authorities through political representatives by means of verbal or written, for their transfers, postings and other service matters, as per their wish. In certain cases, where transfers and postings are ordered in the exigency of administration, the employees, without joining the respective transferred posts, are trying to influence the superior authorities, through political representatives, for modification of the said transfer orders, due to which the authority concerned is facing a lot of inconvenience apart from embarrassing situation.

3. It is, therefore, directed not to bring or attempt to bring any political or outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to furtherance of his / her interests in his / her service matters. If any such political or outside influence is received on his / her behalf, it will be presumed that he / she is aware of such an influence and that it has been made at his / her instance and hence, suitable disciplinary action will be initiated against him / her in terms of the provisions of the Telangana Civil Services (CCA) Rules, 1991, for violation of the 24 of the Telangana Civil Service (Conduct) Rules, 1964.
